

Small School Districts' Association: “Students Need Every Single One of Us!”

SSDA Annual Conference Chairman, Dr. David Hutt, Superintendent of San Bruno Park Elementary School District, is pleased to invite all representatives of small districts to attend the 27th Annual SSDA Conference at the Doubletree Hotel in Sacramento on April 14-16, 2010.

During these difficult times, “Students Need Every Single One of Us!” to be well educated and current relative to legislation, the budget, and creative options for guiding our districts. The place to find this information and engage in stimulating conversation will be the SSDA Annual Conference.

Keynote speakers for the event have been selected and confirmed:

John Vandenburg – an ever popular and nationally recognized speaker, program developer, and trainer on violence prevention and youth development approaches to education, will return

Matt Spathas – a passionate presenter, will speak on transforming the 150-year-old educational delivery system, to engage students and prepare them for the 21st century.

David Walrath – SSDA’s highly respected and informative Legislative Advocate, will present his views on current legislation and fiscal issues impacting small districts.

The Executive Committee changed the format from Thursday-Friday-Saturday to Wednesday-Thursday-Friday. In addition, the five most popular workshops from last year’s successful conference have been invited back. Each will present two hour workshops on Friday, April 15, 2009, after David Walrath’s presentation.
