

CALL FOR PRESENTERS

28th Annual Conference
April 13 - 15, 2011 The Radisson Hotel, Sacramento

The Small School Districts' Association's 28th Annual Conference is designed to benefit Superintendents, Board Members, Business Officers, County Office Staff, Principals and Curriculum Directors.

The Conference Planning Committee is seeking Workshop Proposals that address the current issues facing Small School Districts. In addition to the areas of interest listed below, we are looking for proposals aimed at very small school districts (under 150 ADA), as well as proposals from new and veteran school board members. PLEASE NOTE: School leadership teams of school Board Members and Superintendents are strongly encouraged to submit Workshop Proposals. Associate Members to be considered must include a Superintendent and/or Trustees as part of the presentation team.

Superintendents, School District Staff and other appropriate personnel from SSDA Member School Districts and County Offices of Education are invited to submit proposals for Workshops. Only proposals from SSDA Member Districts, County Offices and Associate Members will be considered.

Proposal Requirements

- Workshops are approximately 55-60 minutes in length.
- The proposal form must be completed entirely, with the descriptions and objectives clearly outlined.
- All workshop proposals should provide visual reinforcement (sample handouts and/or overhead transparencies.)
- Workshops may be solo presentations or two-three, or four-member panels. Inter-district panels and school board member panels are encouraged.
- Presenters should represent the diversity in our state and varied points of view (e.g., business, community, teachers, administration), where appropriate.

Please note: No expenses are paid for the Workshop Presenters.

Deadline
